PRESIDENT

Now that you have completed your college education, I trust that you can discern one ideal we have constantly kept before you during your years at John Carroll: the achievement of excellence in all that you do.

The ideal of excellence we have proposed to you is not approached if one rests content with surpassing one's fellows in specific trials of intellectual strength. One may win many such contests without really perfecting himself as a man. Genuine excellence is attained only if one can honestly say that he has used all his personal resources to the best of his ability. Only then will you be able to meet the challenges that await you in a manner that is worthy of a graduate of a Jesuit institution of higher learning.

It is our hope that, as you review your years at John Carroll, you will recognize our effort to inculcate this high standard of excellence. Our success as educators will be judged by the efforts you make to live up to this ideal and to carry it out in all the areas of your life.

FRANK J. WIESS

Dedication

". . . the theater is a scale whereon are weighed not only the interpreters of ideas, but the very ideas themselves—the values in printed patterns of behavior, the hidden experiences, the suggested designs for living, the worth of hidden notions . . . Out of all this raw material must be manufactured a product which spectators can bear away with them for their present diversion and their future good."

—Frank J. Wiess
"The Vitalizing Force in the Theater"

If the University, in the words of our President, is ". . . the arena in which the willing student meets the able teacher in appropriate surroundings . . ." Professor Frank J. Wiess has made of his classroom an intellectual theater in which he weighs and interprets the ideas of man, scrutinizing his foibles, mocking his pretensions, applauding his eminences.

In composition or in literature, in poetry or in drama, his saber-swift, stiletto-sharp analyses of the written word have a single, unswerving purpose: the formation of students with sharpened rhetorical skills, sensitized literary appetites, refined artistic tastes.

Chiding sometimes, whimsical often, patient always, he surrounds his students with diversion for their present encouragement, enlightenment for their future good.

For twenty-three years Professor Wiess has commuted to Carroll from his home in Parma. In all that time "Senator" Wiess, as his colleagues call him, never has lost his temper, never has lifted his voice in expostulation or argument, never has lost the scholarly dignity which fits him like a toga. Indeed he is so soft-spoken that his words tiptoe on down-shod feet. Shelley had in mind such a man as Professor Wiess when he wrote:

". . . that content surpassing wealth
The sage in contemplation found, and walked with inner glory crowned . . ."

A charter member of the Ohio Catholic Poetry Society, Professor Wiess is a poet in his own right, singing, like the lover in Twelfth Night, high or low as occasion offers.

In the precious moments he can steal from his beloved books, Professor Wiess is a horticulturist, raising flowers, vegetables, and herbs. In the last he is a national authority. From anise to woodruff he knows their culinary virtues and uses them to create a hundred mouth-watering salads and dishes.

The staff is extremely proud to dedicate the 1959 edition of the Carillon to Professor Frank J. Wiess: bard, gentleman, scholar.

The two deans of the Department of English, professors Aloysius A. Bungart and Frank J. Wiess, exchange reminiscences. Colleagues and comrades for more than two decades, the two expect to continue their companionship despite Professor Bungart's retirement in June after 40 years in John Carroll classrooms.

Board of Advisory Trustees

The Lay Board of Advisory Trustees is a consulting body appointed by the Very Rev. Hugh E. Dunn, S. J. with the approval of the Jesuit Board of Trustees.

The members of the Lay Board are selected for their personal prestige in the community, their recognized integrity of character, their ability in business and financial matters, and their interest in the University and its work.

The Board's purpose is to help provide bases of efficient business administration, continuity of business policies and sound financing, advice on programs involving capital expenditures, and suggestions for achieving the ways and means of continuing development at John Carroll. A RESOLUTION

103rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION
1959-1960

H. R. No. 64

Messrs. Mooney-Corrigan-Day-Fuerst-Gorman-Kilbane-Pokorny-Sullivan-Sweeney-Zona-Mrs. Donnelly-Messrs. Horvath-Kovach-Lazzaro-Matia-McCaffery-McGettrick-Novak

In tribute to the memory of the Rev. Father William J. Murphy, S.J., beloved Dean of Men at John Carroll University, for twenty-six years.

WHEREAS, Seldom has a man so profoundly guided the footsteps through life of so many men and left such a lasting impression upon the minds of the thousands who knew him as did the beloved Dean of Men of John Carroll University, the Reverend Father William J. Murphy, S. J.; and

WHEREAS, When Father Murphy arrived in 1930 at what was then St. Ignatius College, he joined the Philosophy Department and also served as Athletic Director, bringing to this school a scholarly mind trained and disciplined at St. Louis University, where he received his B. A., M. A., and Ph.D., and experience in teaching by virtue of his tenure at St. Johns College, British Honduras; and

WHEREAS, More than any other faculty member in the school's history, Father Murphy was directly associated with John Carroll activities, and as Dean of Men for twenty-six years he was responsible for the Carroll Boosters Club, Carroll Union, Band, Glee Club, and Drama Society, but no matter how busy his many responsibilities kept him, Father Murphy always found time to counsel those who needed a word of encouragement; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the House of Representatives of the 103rd General Assembly, adopt this Resolution by a rising vote thus expressing our sorrow at the passing of this wonderful religious leader and educator of a University that has contributed so many "Men of Carroll" to this legislature; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit duly authenticated copies of this Resolution to the John Carroll University Student Center, Cleveland News, Cleveland Plain Dealer, and Cleveland Press.

The official student governing body at John Carroll University is the Carroll Union. It acts as a vital link between the administration and the student body.

The general aims of the organization are: (1) to develop a sense of responsibility among the students of the University; (2) to develop the powers of self government; (3) to aid in the planning of all student activities.

The Union believes in the positive approach to better student-administration relationships. Its members strive to achieve more than just a negative criticism of the administration's regulations.

In connection with the new building the Union took on a new job this year. The responsibility for the care and supervision of the new center was assumed by the Union.

Officers for the year were: J. Peter Fegen, president; George Lutjen, vice-president; Arlene Dorsey, secretary; and James Shannon, treasurer. Dr. Richard J. Spath served as acting moderator.

★ University Series ★

John Carroll University's stature in the community achieved new dimensions as four outstanding personalities of the entertainment world appeared in the University auditorium. Under the direction of the Rev. Herman S. Hughes, S.J., the "University Series" presented entertainment that received wide acceptance, but remained "just a little different."

Sir John Gielgud initiated the "Series" with a Broadway-bound offering entitled "The Ages of Man". An overflow crowd was enthralled by his dramatization of a wide variety of Shakespearean readings.

A modern-day minstrel, Richard Dyer-Bennet, presented songs from many lands to another packed house. Mr. Dyer-Bennet's engaging way with a ballad made for one of the most entertaining evenings of the entire series.

Israeli Pantomimist Shai K. Ophir gave his interpretation of an old art form in the next presentation. His performance was lauded by Cleveland critics, already familiar with his night club and television performances.

In the closing performance of the "Series" Carroll played host to America's most widely quoted poet, the whimsical and amusing Ogden Nash. Mr. Nash's program of light verse was another example of the fresh approach to entertainment which typified the "University Series".

One of the most rewarding aspects of the entire series was the encouraging support of the student body. The programs were priced with the student pocket-book in mind, and several of the artists appeared at Friday afternoon convocations.

Sodality

The primary purpose of the Sodality is the perfection of its individual members through devotion to Our Blessed Mother. The organization tries to point the way to a vital, balanced, and mature program of Catholic college life.

The organization's calendar was a full one, and included Mission Drives, Christmas card sales, and the formation of a Lenten Mass Club. The annual Leadership Retreat was another Sodality project. The Sodality "Spring Swing" was a successful contribution to University social life. In addition, the sodalists sponsored the popular "Sock Hops", held after every home basketball game.

John Kimler acted as Senior Prefect and Nicholas Fillo held the post of vice-president. David Hils instructed candidates for membership, and Thomas Quirk and Edward Hinko served as secretary and treasurer. The Rev. Joseph O. Schell, S. J., was faculty moderator for the organization.

The planning and supervising of Orientation Week and Frosh Hello Week were two major projects for the year. In addition to making campus publicity posters and signs, the organization constructed floats for the Mardi Gras and St. Patrick's day parade.

As part of their social program the "I Chi's" presented their annual Christmas party and dance in the auditorium. Officers for the year were: Jack Lyons, president; Ron Kornak, vice-president; Dennis McGrath, secretary; and William Retterer, treasurer.

In addition the Band sponsored a music festival for high school bands from the Northeastern Ohio area. Participation in the annual Federal Inspection was also part of the organization's activities for the year.

Officers for the year were: Robert Malecek, president, and Sam Cannata, vice-president. The band was under the direction of Mr. Jack T. Hearns. The Rev. James V. McCummiskey, S.J., acted as faculty moderator.

In November the organization heard guest-speaker, Rev. James A. Mackin, S.J., who discussed "Comparative Spanish Culture".

On the social side the "Spaniards" held their annual pre-Christmas dance. The big event on their calendar was the Mardi Gras dance, sponsored in co-operation with the other language clubs.

In its first year on campus the organization sponsored a series of lectures dealing with Soviet strategy and tactics in the satellite countries.

Polish American Club

In its second year on campus the Polish American Club, under the leadership of John Szuch, has undertaken a huge task.

Members of the organization circulated a petition among 500 Carroll students, urging the U. S. Post Office to issue a four cent stamp in commemoration of King John Sobieski, Polish hero. The petition has been sent to Washington, and is now being considered by the Postmaster General.

The other able officers of the organization were: Tom Mszanowski, vice-president; Ted Klupinski, secretary; and Dan Barnoski, treasurer. Dr. Edmund S. Urbanski acted as faculty moderator.

The Society received a number of first place wins in the December Kent State Tournament and Ohio State Tournament. Carroll's debaters brought home the Ohio State Sweepstakes Trophy for the third year.

The debaters also displayed their skill and competence at a three-day meet held at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. The debate group was host to representatives from 30 colleges and universities at the First Annual John Carroll University Debate Tournament which was held during the spring semester.

The purpose of the CCD is to build Catholic leaders for parish activity through an integrated program of work, social activity, and organizational experience. Activities include the instruction and counseling of prisoners as well as of patients in several Cleveland institutions.

Instructions in the Catholic faith are given at Hudson Boys' Farm, Warrensville Work House, the Detention Home, and Highland View Hospital.

CCD members are given an opportunity to participate in Catholic Action in a vital and positive way. A yearly membership drive centers around a display demonstrating the organization's long hours of after-school and week-end labor.

Little Theatre Society

John Carroll University's Little Theatre Society presents two full length productions each year. Members of the organization gain practical experience by actual participation in the staging of these productions.

"Harvey", a light-hearted comedy by Mary Chase, was the thespians' first offering. George McBride provided endless chuckles as the more than slightly daffy Elwood P. Dowd. Other cast members were: John McBride, Judy Clark, Sandy Barrie and Ron Goodrich.

A drama of real stature, Arthur Miller's "The Crucible", was the choice of director Leone J. Marinello and the Society for their spring production. Leading parts in this early American tragedy were filled by: John McBride, James Roth, Nance Carney, John Schimpf, and Lynda Domitor.

Alpha Kappa Psi

Alpha Kappa Psi is a national business fraternity which attempts to further the individual welfare of its members, foster scientific research in the field of business, and to educate the public to appreciate and demand higher ideals in this field. Carroll's Delta Mu chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi was installed on campus in 1956.

Activities for the year included a Thanksgiving food drive for needy families. In addition, the fraternity held a Career Conference, featuring speakers prominent in Cleveland business circles. Social activities included stags and banquets.

Dr. Arthur J. Noetzel, Dean of the School of Business, acted as moderator for the group.

Ron Tipul and John Werner make their contributions to Alpha Kappa Psi's annual food drive for the needy.

Commerce Club

The Commerce Club, composed of business students, attempts to foster interest in various problems in the world of commerce. Members are given the opportunity to attend a number of lectures and discussions, designed to acquaint them with recent developments and research in business.

In addition, the Commerce Club adds to the social life of its members through banquets, stags and dances. The organization also designs and constructs a float for the annual Mardi Gras.

The "businessmen" observed the opening of school by sponsoring the first off-campus dance of the year. An overflow crowd of Carroll men and their dates attended the affair. Marty Conn and his orchestra provided the music.

Officers of the year were: William Colson, president; Charles Muer, vice-president; Dale Brown, secretary; and Donald Kucera, treasurer. Mr. Frank J. Devlin acted as faculty adviser.

Scientific Academy

The Scientific Academy fills a basic academic need on campus. From their participation in the Academy the members of the organization derive a broad knowledge of current developments in the world of science.

A number of lectures, discussions, and movies is part of the group's activities throughout the year. The organization also provides an opportunity for potential men of science to meet and discuss common interests.

In February the Academy was host to Dr. John Vester of the Graduate School of Public Health, Pittsburgh University. Dr. Vester's topic was "Biochemistry," and he illustrated his talk with lantern slides. The Rev. Philip Vogel, S.J., was moderator of the group.

IRE

The Institute of Radio Engineers, in attempting to give its members a deeper appreciation of the fields of physics and electronics, sponsors a variety of lectures, discussions, and field trips. These activities also give members an understanding of physics and the communications industry.

IRE is affiliated with the National Institute of Radio Engineers. Members take part in many social events, such as banquets and hayrides. Membership in the Institute is open to all sophomore physics majors.

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade is the nation's highest military leadership society. Carroll's chapter was chartered as H Company, 10th Regiment in 1953. It has always been known as one of the most active groups on campus.

In conjunction with the Cleveland chapter of the American Red Cross, S and B sponsors two blood drives each year. This year the members solicited over 450 pints of blood.

Among the many social affairs that this Advanced Corps group sponsored was a post-Military Ball party. In the spring semester a "Beatnik" party was held.

Officers included: Bill Burian, Captain; Tom Tully, 1st Lt.; Phil Stanoch, 2nd Lt.; and Dick Delaney, 1st Sgt. Captain Albert A. Helker acted as faculty advisor.

Senior Officer John Szuch "shapes up" the Sabre Detail.

Association of the United States Army

The Association of the United States Army was formed to acquaint the public with defense needs and Army life. A full schedule of discussions, forums and films was presented by Carroll's student chapter, the second formed in the nation.

Association members held a banquet and dance this year. An important part of this year's activities was the annual trip to New Orleans; a large group of Advanced Corps students made the trip.

Officers for 1958-59 included: James Lawlor, president; Robert Kapitan, secretary; and Edward Kelley, treasurer. Major Robert W. Gentleman acted as faculty adviser for the group.

The Pershing Rifles, John Carroll's outstanding drill team, wound up another year with a record of numerous wins in local and national drill competitions. A stiff schedule of drilling, inspections, and just plain hard work enabled the PR's to gain these honors.

Members also attended a number of social activities during the year, including an annual dinner dance. Carroll's crack drill outfit demonstrated their precision marching in the St. Patrick's Day parade and at the annual Federal Inspection. Captain Robert Wanek was faculty moderator for the group.

NDTA

NDTA members are welcomed to New York by Colonel Dannis.

This student organization, established in 1953, is a chapter of an international association of military personnel and civilians. Its purpose is the collection and dissemination of useful knowledge concerning transportation. The Association also tries to foster a spirit of goodwill and cooperative endeavor among its members. This year Carroll's 138-man group was named "Student Chapter of the Year for 1958."

Officers for the year included: Dennis Fagan, president; Howard Pugh, secretary; and Robert Showiak, treasurer. Captain James E. Murphy acted as faculty moderator.

Herbert C. Eisele
Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach

Athletic

Herbert C. Eisele, Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach, took over the Blue Streak reins in 1947. Previously he compiled nineteen years as Head Coach at Cathedral Latin (Cleve.) High School. His record there was an incredible 130 wins, 33 losses, and 18 ties, including an undefeated streak of 35 games.

He brought this winning spirit with him as his record of 57 wins, 33 losses, and 5 ties indicates. In 1957 Herb piloted the first PAC football championship team here at Carroll. After 32 seasons as a coach, Herb retired in February to devote more time to his growing duties as Director of Athletics.

Sil Cornachione, Head Basketball Coach, following his graduation from Carroll, joined the Benedictine (Cleve.) High School as Assistant Baseball, Football, and Basketball Coach. After two successful years, he returned to his Alma Mater to help coach football and basketball.

He was named Head Basketball Coach in 1954 and since has amassed a respectable record. In the first year of the PAC he led his cagers to the runner-up spot and thus primed them for the championships won in 1957-1958 and 1958-1959.

Frank G. Belanich
Golf and Ass't Football Coach

Carl F. Torch
Track and Freshman Football and Basketball Coach

Staff

For three successive seasons, Carl Torch guided the Freshman football teams to undefeated and untied marks and the PAC championships.

Under Carl's expert coaching, Carroll's golf team has risen to the stature of being one of the most feared teams in the state. Besides capturing the PAC crown in 1956, 1957, and 1958 seasons, his teams finished third in the State Tournament in 1956 and second in the same tourney in 1957.

Frank "Bill" Belanich, internal line coach, started his coaching career with Dayton Univ. in 1924. After a brief tour in private business, he re-entered the coaching field at Cathedral Latin (Cleve.) High School in 1943. Four years later he assumed the responsibility of turning out fine linemen at Carroll.

Richard Iliano, trainer, is responsible for keeping the Streaks in top fighting form. Dick's qualifications are numerous, but briefly these are a bachelor's degree in physical education from Baldwin-Wallace, a master's degree in body mechanics from Western Reserve, and a charter membership in the Ohio-Michigan-Indiana Training Association.

Rev. George A. Kmieck, S.J. is Moderator of Athletics.

At the close of each school year the CARILLON is published by a small number of students for the entire student body. This publication requires many hours of complex work including: photography, layout, composition, art work, engraving, printing and binding. Because of the complexities of much of this work we, the student staff, must call on many persons off-campus for aid and advice. Our sincere thanks are due to the following men without whose co-operation this book could not have been published.

— RICCO LEANA, The May Company, Photographic Studio
— RAY MILETI, The Cleveland Engraving Company
— JOSEPH FOGG, The Judson Printing Company
— RALPH BENZ, The S. K. Smith Company
— FRANCES HECKER, Little King Bindery Company

In publishing the 1959 CARILLON we have made every effort to put into words and pictures a history of a year of life at John Carroll University. The book is written for you, the reader. It is our sincere hope that you enjoy reading it as much as we have enjoyed writing it.

This old man, he had one
One is really not much fun.
A glass, a bottle, or a can,
STANDARD BEER for the thinking man.

This old man, he had two
Now things were coming into view.
A glass, a bottle, or a can,
STANDARD BEER for the thinking man.

This old man, he had three
Trying to catch up to me.
A glass, a bottle, or a can,
STANDARD BEER for the thinking man.

This old man he had . . . five?
At least I think that it was five.
A glass, a bottle, or a can,
STANDARD BEER for the thinking man.

This old man, he had six,
He was up to his old tricks:
Glass or bottle or six-pack pace,
STANDARD'S best in any case.
